HABY-KUNTSCHER.

One of the most beautiful wedding ceremonies of the season occurred at St. Matthew's Church at Jourdan, Texas, October 1, 1935, when Miss Mary Kuntischer, third eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kuntischer of Jourdan, became the happy bride of Mr. Laurence Haby of Castroville, Texas, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Haby of Castroville. Rev. H. Benz performed the ceremony.

The bride was led to the altar by her father. Her dress was of white satin crepe and she wore a white veil and wreath of orange blossoms. The bride's bouquet was of queen's crown and fern. The groom wore a navy blue serge suit.

The bridesmaids were Miss Corine Graff and Miss Elizabeth Kuntischer. Miss Graff was dressed in soft rose crepe and Miss Kuntischer in baby blue crepe. The groomsmen were Henry Kuntischer and Clarence Haby.

After the ceremony the bridal party and friends returned to the bride's home where an all-day celebration was held. Following the supper a big dance was held at the S. P. J. S. T. hall at Dobrowski, Texas. When the dance was ended each and every one wished Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Haby a long and happy married life.

BOOSTER CLUB PREPARING FOR CELEBRATION.

A very successful meeting of the Medina County Booster Club was held last Friday night at which additional plans were made for the free barbecue at the fair grounds on November 11th. Everything points to a celebration which will surpass anything ever attempted in Medina County.

Besides the free barbecue, a full day's entertainment is being planned. This includes calf and goat roping, a ring tournament and several contests. The ring tournament is a revival of a contest which was always a great attraction at any celebration 15 or 20 years ago. If you don't know what it is ask any one of the men who are on the tournament committee, J. B. Dawson, V. P. King and Otis Laughinghouse.

Meetings to discuss and perfect plans for this Armistice Day observance are held every Friday night at the Hondo Lumber Co. Everyone is invited, regardless of whether they are members of the Fair Assn. or of the Booster Club. More people in Hondo and the surrounding communities should take an interest in this event. Remember, every Friday night at the Hondo Lumber Co. Be there!

GEORGE H. BENDELE DEAD.

Following an illness of only a few days, death came rather suddenly to Mr. George H. Bendele about 8:15 P. M., Saturday, October 5, 1935. His remains were buried in Oakwood cemetery Monday afternoon, October 7th, the funeral being conducted under the auspices of the local lodge of Masons, Rev. Shan M. Hull of the Methodist church officiating as Master of the Lodge. Another touching tribute was the placing over his grave, following the burial services, of a token of esteem by his brethren of the Quilhi Gun Club of which organization he had long been a member.

One of the largest gatherings ever assembled at a funeral in Hondo and a profusion of beautiful flowers attested the wide esteem in which he was held by those who knew him.

George H. Bendele, oldest son of Jacob and Sybilla Hass Bendele, both of whom are deceased, was born in Medina County, near Castroville, on March 10, 1859. He lived back in the days of wild Indians and had several encounters with them. He was a life-long resident of Medina County, having spent the last 40 years of his life in Hondo. Two brothers, Albert and Fritz Bendele, preceded him in death.

His first marriage was to Miss Amelia Graff, on May 19, 1881; to this union three children were born, one of whom, Charles, died some 15 years ago. His first wife died Feb. 8, 1895. His second marriage was to Mrs. Carolina Leinweber Martin, on January 22, 1896; to this union three children were born, two sons and a daughter, one son, Robert, having died four years ago.

He spent his life in the farming and ranch business, and was always a man who was in earnest about his business and worked hard at his job; and was considered a successful man in his business.

When he was about 38 years of age he made application to the Masonic Lodge of Hondo to receive the degrees of the order. He was elected to take the Entered Apprentice degree, was passed to the degree of a Fellow Craft, and was later raised to the sublime degree of a Master Mason. For the last 38 years of his life he was faithful and loyal to his Masonic obligations, and held a Life Membership Certificate, which he had framed and hung on the wall in his home.

It was his long expressed wish that the Masonic Fraternity say the last words over his remains. This writer knows the deceased had a deep and abiding love for the tenets of his fraternity, and was generous and fraternal in his relationship to his brethren.

His illness was of short duration, having only been sick for about a week before his death. He lived to see the good ripe age of 76 years, 6 months and 25 days.

Those who survive him are his wife, Mrs. Carolina Leinweber Bendele of Hondo; four children, Mrs. Ben Oefinger of Hondo, George H. Bendele, Jr., and Mrs. Adolph Pichot of the Seco, and Mrs. Pauline Goff of Goose Creek; 22 grandchildren and one great grandchild; three sisters and three brothers, Mrs. Mary Blatz of El Paso, Mrs. Hortense Bilhartz of Pearland, and Mrs. Sybilla Haass of Hondo, Jacob, Henry and Armin Bendele from near Biry.

He shall not only be missed by those of his loved ones and near kin, but by all of his friends and acquaintances.

Among the large concourse of sorrowing relatives, neighbors and friends, the following from a distance were noted: Mrs. Pauline Goff and George Pichot of Goose Creek, Mr. and Mrs. John Grossenbacher, Mrs. Ella Oefinger and Miss Lizzie Oefinger, Mrs. C. J. Oefinger, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Edgar, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Davis, Mrs. Louis Hoog and Mrs. Rudolph Zinsmeister, all of San Antonio, Mrs. Erby Hudson and daughter of Laredo, Mrs. Hortense Bilhartz, Aug. and Hy. Bilhartz, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dawson and Mrs. Etta Downs, all of Pearland, Messrs. Alb. and Geo. Blatz, and J. J. Wipff, Mr. and Mrs. B. Bomba, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Schott, all of Devine, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bendele, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bendele, Mr. and Mrs. Hy. V. Haass, Jr., of Castroville, Mrs. Joe Spettel, Mr. and Mrs. Rud. Haby, Mr. and Mrs. Alb. Bendele of Rio Medina, Mrs. Henrietta Pruitt and Mrs. Lopez of San Antonio, and Emil Martin of Knippa.

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.

The Master Jesus Christ said: "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness; and all things shall be added unto you." This is found in Matthew 6, 33. Apparently this Truth does not mean much to many Christians. "It is all right in theory, but it does not work out in practice" was the comment of a business man who defended his lack of interest in church work with the claim that his business affairs took all of his time. This is the sentiment of many; their work, their own affairs take up all their time.

They do, because the person permits them to take up all his time, and that is positively wrong. It is not theory, but fact that some of the busiest men and women find time for church work; not only that, but church work is the FIRST thing in their minds and hearts. They put first things first.

Stonewall Jackson, a great fighter and a Christian, even while out on the field of battle, was mindful of his duties and responsibilities to his church at home. The following story is told of him:

"A decisive battle had been fought. The telegraph lines were down, and news was slow in reaching some who were most interested. At length a letter arrived from the general to his home town. His handwriting was recognize, and the general's pastor broke the seal and read to the impatient listeners: 'I remember that this is the day for the collection for foreign missions. Please find enclosed my check.' Then came the signature of the hero of the battle and that was all."

Thanks for mercies past received, Pardon of our sins renew, Teach us always, Lord, to live With eternity in view.

On Sunday, October 13, at 7:30 P. M. the examination of the class of 15 confirmants will take place at the church.

On Sunday morning, Oct. 20, at 10:00 A. M. the confirmation service will be conducted. Service at Spottville 2:30 P. M.

German service Oct. 13 at 10:00 A. M.

MRS. BOON ENTERTAINS.

A large number of friends were recipients of the charming hospitality of Mrs. Volney Boon Friday afternoon when she entertained with six tables of bridge at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. M. Finger. The tables were arranged on the sun porch, which was decorated with orange cosmos and fern and other fall-themed motifs. The bridge appointments further featured the chosen theme.

Following a number of bridge games, prizes were awarded Mrs. F. seawards for high score and Mrs. W. H. Case for low. An innovation was the traveling prize, for slams. This award also went to Mrs. F. H. Schweers.

The hostess, assisted by Misses Frances Finger, Lucille Loon and Anna Laura Welhausen, served a salad course, cake and iced tea.

The guests were Mesdames Roy Junior, J. C. Johnson, Earl Starnes, O. B. Taylor, F. H. Schweers, R. J. Noonan, H. J. Meyer, O. H. Miller, A. H. Schweers, L. J. Brucks, R. C. Rath, Ed. ## QUIHI NOTES.

And while he lingered . . . the Lord being merciful unto him . . . they brought him forth, and set him without the city. Gen. 19:16.

The fatal day was breaking. The guardian angels were hastening Lot and his little family. He was fully advised of what that day would bring. God never destroys without warning. Still, Lot lingered. Why? Did he doubt the Lord's intentions, the message of the angels, in the last minute? Did he plan heroics, to go down with the doomed city, like so many a captain going down with his sinking vessel, like so many a general dying at the head of his defeated army? Did he seek a martyr's lot, aying for a good and noble cause? None of all that. He was not built for that type. Maybe sluggish with old age, or, in a fit of melancholia, he lacked the energy of self-preservation? No, he just lingered, wavered; something held him, something told him to go. He simply was not ready for the Lord's business. Wonder whether he was not fettered by entanglements by associations hostile to true citizenship and true religion, benumbing his good conscience toward God, getting him in confidential relations with bad men, substituting man-made ideals for divine standards and feeding him with flimsy phraseology in place of God's stern directives, thus stealthily throwing him out of gear with God's objectives and now making him totter with awe when God asserted Himself in judgment? How hard it is to break such connections! But the Lord was merciful, teaching him an emphatic lesson on, Be ye not unequal yoked together with unbelievers.

Fourteen members and several guests were present at the last meeting of the Ladies' Aid. Trust the others had very good reasons for absence at this important meeting. Among various other deliberations, the Aid pledged its hearty cooperation for the intended program on Thanksgiving Day. The committee appointed for the purpose consists of the Mesdames Otto Lindeburg, Jacob Oefinger, Geo. Balzen, Ernest Hartman and Frank Boehle. We were glad of the fine spirit evinced in this connection.

Miss Lorine Bohlen ventured into Arizona on a visit, leaving a gap in our teaching staff for the Sunday school, but we are able to supply with a substitute. And for the time being, Miss Pauline Saathoff has planned an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Saathoff, at the suburb of Quilhi, San Antonio. May both enjoy the change without forgetting the roosting place of Home, Sweet Home.

Another reminder of the Mission Festival on October 20th. May the Lord present us favorable weather and large audiences with the proper enthusiasm for His work in missions. It's a great privilege to be a collaborator with God in His greatest work, the winning of immortal souls.

Announcements for October 13th: English service at 10:30; Sunday school and Bible classes at 9:30; German service at New Fountain, 2 P. M. Luther League program at 7:15. Come and be welcome.

A BARBECUE.

Stinson and family, Mayor Henry Flory and family, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Beck and sons, Gee and A. O. Beck, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Haby, Mr. and Mrs. John Sitre and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Rihn and brother, Joe Rihn, Gabe Hans and brother, Edgar, Ed Sitre and daughter, Mrs. C. A. Haby. After supper they all went home, wishing that Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Haby will give another barbecue in the near future.

THURSDAY BRIDGE CLUB.

Mrs. J. M. Finger was hostess to the Thursday Bridge Club last week on Thursday afternoon, entertaining with three tables of bridge. Club prizes were awarded Mrs. W. H. Smith for high score and Mrs. L. J. Brucks for second high. The hostess served a salad course and iced tea to the following: Mesdames Earl Starnes, O. B. Taylor, W. H. Smith, H. J. Meyer, E. J. Leinweber, Garland Martin, Volney Boon, O. H. Miller, T. B. Knopp, R. J. Noonan, and L. J. Brucks.

MANAGING EDITOR.

Hon. Joe W. Caldwell has our thanks for copies of the House Journal and other favors. Mr. Caldwell, both by reason of his energy and his position on important committees, is a very busy man, especially in view of the important legislation now under consideration in the legislature. But in it all he finds time to guard the interest of his district as well as look after the larger interests of the state.

METHODIST CHURCH.

Shan M. Hull, Pastor.

Our 4th Quarterly Conference was held last Sunday evening, at the close of the evening preaching service, and has become a matter of history. There will only be three more Sundays until this conference year shall also be a thing of history, therefore, since our church records do become a matter of history for the coming generations to look back upon, let's all strive to make the records such that we would be glad for our children, and their children to read.

The following officers were elected at the 4th Quarterly Conference: Board of Stewards, O. A. Fly, Henry Merriman, J. R. Chancey, H. F. King, J. G. Newton, A. H. Schweers, S. O. Woods, R. L. Mumme, C. J. Monkhouse, Paul Ephraim, and Leslie Holloway; Recording Steward, S. O. Woods; District Steward, O. A. Fly; Associate District Steward, J. G. Newton; Chairman Church Missionary Committee, Mrs. J. G. Newton; Golden Cross Director, Mrs. Barnitz Carle; General Superintendent of Church School, J. A. Horger; Assistant Superintendent, S. O. Woods; Board of Christian Education, Mrs. J. A. Horger, Mrs. O. A. Fly, Mrs. J. G. Newton, and Mrs. S. M. Hull; Superintendent of Divisions, Children's Division, Miss Willie D. Fly, Young People's Division, Miss Irene Barkuloo; Adult Division to be elected.

Remember friends, that there remains such a short time before the pastor leaves for the meetings of the Annual Conference, the time is so near at hand, but there remains quite a distance to go before we reach our financial goal. Our goal will be possible this year if each and every member of the church will do his and her part in helping to reach our goal; therefore, we are desirous of the cooperation of the membership with the Board of Stewards in helping them to meet all of the obligations of the church. Your most hearty cooperation will be appreciated by all concerned.

FARMERS MECHANIZING.

The first car load of International Harvester Company Farm Tractors, and possibly the first solid car of any make of farm tractors ever shipped to Hondo for local distribution, arrived in Hondo the first of the week. They were shipped to Miller Service Station, local distributing agents, and will be distributed among the farmers of this trade territory.

This evidence of confidence in the profit to be made from quantity production is encouraging to all, as volume farm production is the basis of farm prosperity and the prosperity of all depend upon the prosperity of the farm in a farming community such as ours.

Messrs. O. H. Miller and Barnitz Carle are to be congratulated on having the courage to back up this confidence with their investment, and in rendering a service to the agricultural community all will wish them a successful business.

See their message to the farmers on the last page of this paper.

SIDNEY-MARSHALL STARRED.

From the play whose flashing wit has kept Broadway in convulsions for months comes Paramount's "Accent on Youth", which opens Friday and Saturday at the Colonial Theatre.

With Sylvia Sidney and Herbert Marshall cast in the starring roles, "Accent on Youth" tells the story of a man who found himself facing the love of his life just as he was about to say farewell to romance.

Marshall plays the role of a charming playboy in his middle forties. Miss Sidney is seen as his tempestuous secretary, very much in love with him but unable to make him propose. While Marshall hesitates, a younger man pushes his suit. The comedy situations arise from Marshall's efforts to win back Miss Sidney. Astrid Allwyn, Phillip Reed, Ernest Cossart and Holmes Herbert play the supporting roles.

In Sunday's issue of the Houston Chronicle Floyd Mechler and Jackie Schuchle of Hondo were given special mention as outstanding backfield players in the football game last Saturday between the Rice freshman squad and Lamar. In a recent dispatch from Schreiner Institute, two more Hondo boys were given special notices. Ted Dawson is quoted as giving a splendid performance in the line Friday in the Mountaineer win over the San Marcos Bob Cats. Carroll Jones of Hondo, rangy halfback, was the only casualty of the day. Reports at present are that he may be out of the line-up from three days to a week with a leg injury.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Saathoff and Mrs. Guenther Koch spent last Saturday in San Antonio. Mrs. Saathoff and daughter visited relatives while Mr. Saathoff attended the Old Trail Drivers' Association meeting. Mr. Saathoff reports a big time, the entertainment features being a barbecue in the afternoon and a dance at the Gunter Hotel at night. While there he said he met Jacob Fohn of below Hondo and a large number of old friends among the members. Mr. Saathoff in his younger days was initiated into the group now known as the Old Trail Drivers. His first trip up the U. P. trail was in 1883, when he and a number of other men drove 600 head of horses from below Hondo to Dodd City, Kansas. In the group were George Gerdes, Mr. Saathoff's brother, the late Emil Saathoff, and the late Oscar de Montel, and a number of others who since passed on. Ed. Kauffman of Castroville, who died several months ago, was boss of the outfit on that drive. Mr. Saathoff drove up the trail again in 1884, and has many interesting stories to relate about his experiences.

ST. JOHN'S PAROCHIAL SCHOOL NOTES.

A FOREWORD.

"Happy days are here again". St. John's is in full swing now. The number of pupils this semester show an increase. The keen interest and attention demonstrated by pupils make the task of teaching a pleasant one for the Sisters, who received a "heartly welcome" from the parents on their arrival here.

TO THE PARENTS:

Before we proceed further with the news of St. John's, we wish to extend our sincere thanks to the parents for their past cooperation with us. We ask you to continue your cooperation and we assure you that we will give your children not merely the material education which they receive here and out of here but also an education—a moral one that will remain with them forever. We thank you parents, and we urge you to continue your cooperation.

ST. JOHN'S CLUB.

A week or two after classes were resumed at St. John's a club was organized by the intermediates. The voting for the chief officers was done secretly and by ballot.

The results of the balloting were as follows: Mary Ann Noonan was elected to the office of presidency by a majority of votes.

Mary Louise Haegelin was elected to the office of secretary. There was almost a tie between Mary Louise and Charles Vincent Richter for the latter office. Charles Vincent Richter, however, was elected to the office of treasurer—a very important office as you all know.

Pupils of St. John's show by the above results that they are capable of voting intelligently, although they have not attained the qualifications common to all citizen voters.

The Club is an active one and is now known as St. John's Stars. The members have given a luncheon in the school auditorium which was indeed a big success. They have also given a little card party—it too was a grand success. The club is now contemplating another party and we are not timid in saying that this too will be successful. By means of this Club's activities we will be able to obtain some material and equipment lacking in St. John's.

ST. JOHN'S HONOR ROLL.

The following pupils received honors in the First Test: Fred Schueling, Bobby Lou Rath, Willie Mae Eckhart, Freddie Jerome de Grodt, Dorothy Ney, Henry Martin Finger, Maurice Joseph Zerr, Rose Marie Finger.

RANCHER OF HONDO ADJUDGED BANKRUPT.

Adjudging Max John Wenmohs, Hondo ranchman and assistant AAA cotton adjuster, a bankrupt was the first official act of Federal Judge R. J. McMillan upon his return Tuesday from a visit of several weeks in New York, where he assisted in clearing a heavy criminal docket. Wenmohs listed his debts at $5828, and his assets at $250.—San Antonio Light.

A Ford V-8, occupied by Alfred Winkler, Herbert Gerdes and Oscar Leinweber, three young men of this vicinity, turned over while traveling on the highway near Castroville Saturday and all three were more or less painfully cut and bruised. It seems almost miraculous that they escaped being killed from the battered appearance of the car.

The two $100 bank accounts and the one $40 account would have gone to Henry L. Weynand of D'Hanis, Miss Frances Ellen Hons of Sabinal, and Mrs. A. J. Brucks of Converse, respectively, if either had been present at the Colonial Theatre either Monday or Tuesday night. As no one claimed the awards, the amounts for next bank night are two $100 accounts and one $60.00.

At the monthly Trades Day event Wednesday afternoon, the following were winners of the awards given by the merchants and business men of Hondo: Lyman Morris, Mrs. Albert Saathoff, Clarence Mumme, Miss Minnie Wiemers, Delia Muenk and Mrs. Elsie Worden. The next event of the kind will be the second Wednesday in November.

Sunday, Oct. 3, the Fisher relatives held a family reunion in the park at Utopia, in honor of Sterling Fisher, Jr., who is leaving for the Orient with Vice President Garner and his party. Among those present were his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Fly, Miss Winnie D. Fly, and Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Fly and children of Hondo, and Mr. Sterling Fly and family of Crystal City.

Last week on Tuesday, Oct. 7, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Haby and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wolff and two little daughters motored to Jourdan to attend the wedding of Mr. Haby's nephew, Laurence Haby, to Miss Mary Kuntzer. The wedding was solemnized in the Catholic Church at Jourdan. After the ceremony a host of relatives and friends went to the home of the bride's parents where an all-day celebration was held, and at night a big dance was tendered the young couple. All reported an enjoyable trip and a good time.

The way to permanent prosperity is the difficult path of economy and efficiency in Government, and the balancing of budgets of States and the Nation. The people must be encouraged to go the way of independence, industry, economy and self-reliance. Business is ready to resume its forward march if the Congress would give assurance of sound legislation.—Senator Byrd of Virginia.

This paper could never respect the late Senator Long's methods much, for they were too often the methods of a demagogue. Like many another able man, he spoiled what might have been a brilliant career and brought himself and the miserable wretch who murdered him both to untimely ends by his failure to recognize and respect the rights of others, failing to realize that might without right is dangerous.

—oOo—

This paper stands for a government of Democratic simplicity. It stands for a government economically administered. It stands for a government that is the servant and not the master of the people. It stands for all who stand for these things. It parts company with any who depart from them. If you stand for a free, untrammelled press you stand with us. As you stand by us with your material support the firmer we can stand. If you are a reader of this paper this should need no interpretation. Help us spread our circulation.

The man, be he president, secretary of agriculture or editor of a great agricultural journal, may think that plowing under thousands of acres of cotton with the tons of oil that might have been squeezed out of the seed, as was done in 1933, to say nothing about the thousands of pigs and cows left to feed the buzzards in 1934, was not "destroying food", but his protestations are not convincing, either to the consumer who is now paying higher prices for meat and grease, or to the farmer who is short on these products when the sale price is up. It is never wise to wantonly waste the bounties of nature.

—oOo—

The Texas Legislature, in voting on the pending Small liquor bill, will have to choose between liquor drinking openly before a licensed and legally prescribed bar and drinking out of a bottle any and every where. In choosing between two evils let us hope they choose the lesser of the two. In proscribing the serving of liquor to the customer by the drink, the buyer will be forced to make a larger purchase. Being denied the right to have it served to him, he will carry it away with him to consume it under less restraint and under every imaginable circumstance. In other words, in the effort to outlaw the "open saloon" by proscribing the bar room, they make a distributing agency out of the automobile, the ice box and the hip pocket of every man who drinks and "open a saloon" wherever men can pull a cork. Such is the maze of folly we lead ourselves into when we refuse to face facts.

—oOo—

The Texas Legislature submitted a Constitutional Amendment to the voters of the state providing authority for that body to establish an Old Age Pension. Having opposed the plan, FARMING does not presume to be a mouthpiece for those who voted for it. It stands to reason, however, that those who voted for it voted with the understanding that they were voting for an OLD AGE PENSION. It now develops that the same legislature that submitted the proposal is planning to give the voters not an Old Age Pension but an INDIGENT OLD AGE'S DOLE. It would be more in keeping with real statesmanship to nullify this ill-advised piece of class legislation by refusing to pass an enabling act than to gold-brick the people by perverting it into a pauper's dole. Don't play a shell-game with the would-be pension beneficiaries or the tax-payers either.

THE EDITOR'S TURN-ROW

FORCING US INTO INFLATION.

In a recent article, Paul Mallon, the well known Washington correspondent, wrote: "The truth is the treasury does not know what its receipts and expenditures will be next month. Its haziness about the future expands at the contemplation of each sheet on the calendar. It cannot have even a faintly worthwhile opinion beyond next year."

This is in line with the theory that many thinking Americans have been holding for some time—that federal finance is in a hopelessly chaotic condition. Forecasts as to the future revenue have no sound basis—they usually represent optimism, rather than realism. The government continues to spend us farther into debt—and apparently hasn't the slightest idea of where the money is to come from to meet obligations.

One inevitable result of such a policy is constantly mounting taxes—along with new taxes. Another, and perhaps more menacing possibility, is inflation. All the tax laws in the world cannot produce revenue when personal pocketbooks and industrial bank balances run dry. When that happens, inflation—which can be defined as cheapening and degrading the currency—becomes the "easy" way out.

The PERILS of INFLATION need no description—the tragic EXAMPLES of GERMANY and other countries which experienced INFLATIONARY periods are well known. If we are to avoid such social and economic tragedies at home, government finance must undergo a thorough overhauling, both in principle and practice.—Industrial News Review.

If it be true that "a half truth is the worst of lies", then the worst kind of dishonesty is deception camouflaged behind a veil of truth!

The last paragraph of the foregoing quotation is just such a deception.

It is dishonest!

And it is being resorted to far too often by writers who should be far too honest to thus mislead the people.

The "perils of inflation" LIE NOT IN AN INCREASE OF CIRCULATING MEDIUM, as the argument cleverly implies, BUT IN EXHAUSTION OF CREDIT, as it clumsily tries to hide.

The tragic examples of Germany and other countries were tragic in that "INFLATION," so called, the issuance of CREDIT currency, was not attempted until the countries'

credit was exhausted and there was nothing left to sustain the currency.

The "tragedy", instead of condemning the issue of credit currency as ruinous, condemns the policy of exhausting a country's credit—if avoidable—before resorting to this use of credit in order to preserve it; proper use of any thing is its best preservation.

The tragedy will serve a useful purpose if it warns the American people to restore the function of issuing money to the government before the issuing of bonds has wrecked the credit of the country.

Faith in the ability to pay makes the bonds valid; the same faith will circulate a credit currency.

Without that faith—that credit—both will fail.

The very thing such writers attempt to conjure into a menace under the mask of "inflation", becomes the light of our economic salvation under its rightful guise of a restoration to the people of the constitutional right to have their government issue its own currency and use it for the good of the whole people instead of leaving the power to issue money in the hands of a favored few to whom it has been farmed out while the people are sold into economic slavery through the issuance of bonds.

When will our writers and statesmen meet the issue of honest facts and get headed right, not only for recovery but for economic freedom?

—oOo—

There is an almost universal market slump in the prices of all farm products at the harvest season. This is a natural consequence of so much being rushed upon the market and the speculators taking advantage of the farmers' rush to sell. The speculator is not to be blamed for the very human instinct to take advantage of circumstances in his favor. Then, too, it is the speculator who takes the risk involved in carrying the product until the demands of consumption absorb it, and he buys as cheaply as possible in order to insure against possible loss. Furthermore, the farmer who has to sell would be in a hapless situation if there were no speculators to assume the risk. When agriculture again becomes what it once was—a cash business—and each farm is supplied with ample storage facilities for holding the product on the farm until consumption and not speculation absorbs it, then—and not till then—can the farmer stand from under the handicap of the harvest-time price slump.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

—That the power to think is Nature's greatest gift to man?

—That without the power of thought man would be without the power to advance?

—That to the thoughts of the wise is due most of man's material good?

—That by the thoughts of the good has come most of our morality?

—That we raise or lower ourselves by the quality of our thoughts?

—That man's actions never rise above the nobility of his thoughts?

—That "as a man thinketh in his heart so is he"?

* * *

The respite he enjoys the best
Whose honest toil has earned the rest!

Disrespect for the rights of the minority is a greater menace to our liberties than all the schemes ever dreamed by the Reds!

A man's liberty ends where he ceases to respect the rights of others!

AN AUTUMN THOUGHT.

Autumn
Leaves have their time
To fall, but e'er they pass
Turn to gold—a wealth of beauty
Untold.

So should
One's own life be,
Like leaves arrayed for death,
Closed bright with heaven's reflected Glory!

—FLETCHER DAVIS.

Passing up the question as to whether the altruistic motives behind the government's Rural Resettlement plan outweigh the evils of the paternalistic features of its attempted application, one vital weakness of the scheme seems to be entirely ignored by those set to the task of putting it in operation. That is the problem of taxation. The ad valorem tax alone on realty property in many localities is so excessive as to deter many young farmers from the venture of home ownership. In addition to this, indirect taxes are so universally applied, and have raised interest rates and living costs so high, that many farmers who inherited free of cost, not "submarginal" lands but fine farms, are finding it impossible to retain their farms much less live on them and at the same time earn from them the purchase price which they must pay to acquire them. With all due respect to the "brain trust" which formulated the plan, a better Rural Resettlement plan would be to encourage the individual to himself seek to acquire the home of his choice by exempting small homesteads from all taxation.

Governor James V. Allred has announced that parole boards have been approved in the first eight counties in Texas through the cooperation of district governors and presidents of local service clubs. These county parole boards are to be charged with the community service responsibility of rehabilitating paroled or pardoned criminals and making periodical reports to the Governor. In the past, convicts out of the penitentiary on parole or pardon have been "on their own" and the inclination to return to a life of crime has been ever present. Governor Allred believes that with responsible citizens in each community ready to aid these unfortunate men that the constructive and worthwhile purpose of making honest, law-abiding citizens of them can be accomplished. It is the Governor's hope that service clubs throughout the State of Texas will respond immediately to the call for board nominations. Governor Allred originated the idea of county parole boards as a means to aid the pardoned or paroled prisoner get a foothold on life again. The idea is completely new and has not been tried out before in any state. Parole boards are already appointed in several counties.

—oOo—

Ernest Caldecott, writing on the "Need for Leadership", in the Christian Register, thus voices a thought that is agitating the minds of all who are mindful of the future welfare of our country and of our posterity. Says Mr. Caldecott: "While many of us declare that business should not be so interfered with by government, IN THE NEXT ELECTION WE SHALL EITHER VOTE FOR MORE SUCH INTERFERENCE OR GIVE OURSELVES OVER TO A GROUP WHO WILL FOSTER SPECIAL PRIVILEGE AND LEGALIZE MONOPOLY, which latter may yet breed the revolution we would avert. A third party is foredoomed to failure, and socialism, as such, does not capture the imagination of our citizenry. Thus we are in a cul de sac." Which being interpreted means that the two dominant parties are to keep up a sham battle over non-essentials while organized greed further enslaves the masses. Unless the Democratic party can be recaptured by real Democrats or the Republican party can change its spots and become the champion of the people instead of special privilege before the next election, four more years of uncertainty and economic insecurity is the inevitable fate of the country. At present, both parties are dodging the issue of monopoly, the striking off of whose hydra-heads is to be the country's only salvation—and the foremost of these are the banker's monopoly of currency control and the protective-tariff-beneficiaries' control of trade.

I LIKE TO ROAM ABOUT THE FIELDS.

I like to roam about the fields
Without a gun or rod,
To know and love within my heart
The miracles of God,
The ripple of the mountain brook,
The splash of playful trout,
The bell-like calling of the thrush
So clearly ringing out.

I like to roam about the fields,
To pause beneath the tree,
To have the timid squirrel come
And make a friend of me,
To watch the rabbit's ears salute
Each little, foreign sound,
To see the cautious, antlered stag
Leap lightly o'er the ground.

I like to roam about the fields,
To let my soul be filled
With all the scented sweetnesses
Which Nature has instilled,
To glimpse the jewelled spider web,
Inspect the busy bees;
Please God that I may always want
To love such things as these!
—ADDISON HOWARD HALLOCK.

THE RUSHING WIND.

The wind is affecting me strangely
today,
I feel that I must kneel and pray . . .
Something is tapping the door of my
soul
Like fierce rushing winds that hunt
for a goal.
Though sorrows kill gladness in this
world of woe,
I know what power affects me so.
I reach out for bliss with two empty
hands,
And although they ache, not one understands.
I know that I can love, but leave me
alone,
Still as a statue, a carving in stone.
Though afraid to speak I could
scream at life,
And hurl in its face deceitful
strife . . .
And yet as the wind blows on and on
I vision another tomorrow's dawn
Through fragrant gardens over
mountains and streams
In a constant change of scenic dreams.

A PRAYER FOR GRASS.

Oh, give me grass, the green, green
grass,
Or the dead grass grown sere and
brown;
But give me grass where I may lie
Far from the madding crowds of town.
Oh, let me rest where birds are
heard,
In glades where none may come or
pass;
Yes, let me rest in quietness,
And soothe my soul with grass—
grass—grass.
—EDNA VAUGHAN BLACK.

VENICE.

The lights
Fell like tresses
Of gleaming yellow hair
Spread over the surface of blue
Water.
—JEANETTE NOURLAND in
L'ALOUETTE, Oct. 1933.

TO WHOM I LEND MY BOOKS.

There is a most selective list
Of they whom books I lend;
And he who borrows them is
known,
Sincerely for a friend.
So when I lend a book to you,
Preserve—return it whole.
When pages in my books are
torn;
It also tears my soul.

THE AWAKENING OF THE WATER FOWLS.

Sweet down-wind gently stirs the
purple haze,
Arrows of light fall on a placid lake
Changing that seeming void of black
to blue,
Then watch the numerous water-fowl
awake.
Soft murmurings are heard on every
side,
Then louder cheep of impudent mud-
hens—
Low laughter of those idiotic loons
As they, with long-beaked ibis edge
the fens.
Gray hel-divers awake with sudden
cries—
Plovers start wading in the shallows
near—
A curved bill curlew rises from its haunt—
Then whirring, noisy, honking geese
appear,
Followed by snowy egrets, gleaming
white,
And lovely herons, down of softest
blue.
The axe-billed pelicans stand dignified,
As though awaiting a forgotten cue.
A wondrous spectacle each opening
day,
Watching this wild life wake to greet
the sun,
This sanctuary, paradise where birds
Know not a fear of man, or dog, or gun.
—ELLIE WILCOX BURT.

AUTUMN.

In the autumn's golden glow
When the leaves are turning red,
Do you think of winter's snow
Or of autumn days instead?
Songs of birds were ne'er so sweet
As they linger for awhile,
But where they go there's no sleet
And the sun e'en wears a smile.
Nuts have turned a golden brown
And the apples rosy red,
Oh, how can you wear a frown
With the blue sky overhead?
Grapes have turned a purple hue
Squirrels have gleaned a winter
store,
Goldenrods now blooming true
Soon will rest till winter's o'er.
Brightest flowers are left to bloom
Seem to cheer us on the way,
Before winter's chilly gloom.
So love autumn while you may.
—DAISY BROOKING.

FULL MOON.

The soft night wind sighed
And the savage in me cried
At the sight of the full, full moon
For both knew day would come too
soon.
—DALE GUHL.

THE BEST SEASON.

Summer is so lovely
I really must confess,
That she would seem the season
Which most will earth life bless;
When every orchard's begging
That we all eat our fills,
While blossoms line the highways,
And are mirrored in all rills.
But think of lovely Autumn,
Dressed for her grand soirees
So regal in her splendor
She dazzles with her rays.
With gold and orange drapings
The grand dame will appear
In a maze of crimson glory—
The Sunset of the Year.

Yet what is more delightful
Than that season grand
Which as rest-time for all nature
Was divinely planned;
When silence rules the forests
And selfish, prodding care
Has settled down for sleeping
Beneath snow's mantles fair!

But is not Spring most blessed
Of the seasons of the years?
When sentient Nature mingles
Gay rainbows with her tears;
When with rebirth of Nature,
Aspiring human souls
Glimpse Resurrection's promise
Of ever higher goals!
—LILLIAN MATHILDA SVENSON.

NIGHT SKETCH.

Autumn night
Aloof and strangely cool;
A high white moon
Stenciled in the east;
Bridal wreath
Embroidering a tremulous silence
Along the weathered pailings
Of the fence;
A silhouette of slender palm leaves
Tapping
The blue grey silence of night;
And from the distant shadows of the fort
Comes the long full blasts
Of a silvered bugle—
Taps.
—L. VA. DAVIDGE.

SUNSET.

On the western hills the sunset glow
Is dawdling, twilight is waiting near
the vales,
The peaks of the mountains are touched with beauty bending
low,
Orange and purple and red the gorgeous details;
Gorgeous orange and purple and red;
They are colorful rainbows magically
straightening out;
They are paralleling rainbows from
the horizon spread—
"Gloria in excelsis!" the heavens
shout.
—ANN PAGET.

WILL ROGERS.

Heart of the universe, friendly, kind,
Easing the stress of the nation's
find;
Lent to us for one little day
Then like a flash, he went away
Into the path of the setting sun
With our great need of him just begun.

Dark was the night and the water
chill
When he went out, but still, but still
Far up in the ceiling I have been told
There glimmered one new star in the cold;
Glimmered and twinkled all through
the night
Surely no star ever shone so bright—
God in the Heavens, let him stay
To lighten our hearts for aye, for
aye.
—M. SCHAFER CONNELLY.

AUTUMN DREAMS.

When locusts drone to cricket's call
And browning sparrows sway
On scarlet sumac-shaded wall
About the close of day;

Full-seeded pods shed silken store
And squirrels in the wold
Are eying pumpkins on the floor
'Mid forests red and gold;

Then golden moonlight gently
streams
Across our path at night,
Thus making Autumn's glorious
dreams
Too wonderful for sight.
—KAY McCULLOUGH.

MAN-CHILE.

Honey, don't you give dat chile
No ol' sissy doll with curls,
'Taint fitten dat a man-chile
Should play with truck like girls.

Give him bacon rine to chew,
Let him have a knife to hol',
Man-chile know what he mus' do
Do' he ain't so ol'.

Honey, don't you look so sad,
Man-chile born to guns and drums,
'Taint no use a-feelin' bad.
Jus' kin pray whatever comes.
—LOUISE NAGLE MORROW.

PRAIRIE NORTHER.

Clear rings the silver bugle of the wind
From the steel blue tumult of the sky
To the quivering grasses
Leaning close to the earth.
Rythm of the wind
And swaying grasses
Climaxed in the arc
Of a white bird's flight
To the shelter of my rooftop.
Falling, falling,
A plaintive moan
In my chimney corner,
As the nort' sweeps the prairie!
—MARY OCTAVIA DAVIS.

LIFE AND DEATH.

However well we cling to life,
And dread in death to lie,
"It is not all of life to live,
Nor all of death to die."

However much we court success,
And dread defeat's chagrin,
Success comes by defeat at times,
They sometimes lose who win.
—NETTA V. WILM.

AFTERWARDS.

To fail
Of victory
After having tried is
More victory than never to
Have tried—
—EDITH ANISFIELD WOLF.

DEVINE NEWSLETS

From The Devine News.
PLENTY MONEY AVAILABLE
BUT NO MEN TO WORK.

This part of the world finds itself
in a peculiar condition as to Relief
Work and appropriations. Commissioner Roberson says we are ready to go to spending $40,000 on bridges and $200,000 on lateral roads in the county, but there are no men left on the relief rolls to do the work; only 8 or 10 at Devine and some of these are physically unfit for work. Mr.
Roberson said a move is being made to allow unemployed men, who are not on relief, do the work. We stand to lose $200,000 because we are too prosperous (?) or too independent to take a government dole.

District Football Comments.

The Coyotes and the Wildcats to a finish night, no holds barred. That is the way the district race is looking at present. The Uvalde Coyotes have slowed down only once in their march when they allowed the Carrizo squad to hold them down to a two touchdown victory week before last. Friday they took a weak Cotulla club to a 40 to 0 cleaning.

The Del Rio Wildcats seemingly will not be satisfied with less than 60 points. The Crystal Javelinas allowed them even 60 while they themselves were busy garnering exactly zero.

It will be quite a game when the two leaders meet. Speed against power. Del Rio has a fast elusive backfield featuring Brantley and Peimbert. Hondo fans will recall how Brantley ran a kickoff back to the Hondo 35-yard line late in the game in Del Rio last year. Brantley should also be the best punter in the district this year.

Jimmy Green's Coyotes feature power through the line and massed plays over tackle. They are probably the heaviest team in the district.

The Hondo Owls showed some new backs in the Friday game. B. Rothe played most of the game in place of J. H. Rothe and looked promising in the safety position. He is plenty small yet but should go places in another year. Langford and Nester played good defensive ball but their blocking on the offense was not so good.

That strange noise heard on the Hondo bench during the Peacock game was Coach DuBose wringing his hands and moaning for some good linebackers.

We have not yet made up our mind about that Boogeroo-Natalia game. The Boogeroos came back saying they made so many first downs to Natalia's two and so on and on. Then Natalia says in the Sunday Light that they had the Boogeroos on the run all during the game. We will reserve our opinion until they play the return game here on the 17th.

Scores this week:
Pearsall 6, Devine 0.
Carrizo Springs 12, Sabinal 0.
Asherton 6, Eagle Pass 0.
Hondo 19, Peacock 0.
Uvalde 40, Cotulla 0.
Del Rio 60, Crystal City 0.
Boogeroos 0, Natalia 0.

Changes in the local grid schedule: The Boogeroos play the Brackenridge B squad here Thursday afternoon. The game is scheduled for 4 o'clock P. M. The Hondo High School Owls will play Somerset on Barry Field Friday afternoon, beginning at 3:30 P. M. The Owls will probably play without the services of J. H. Rothe who has developed a severe "Charley-horse" in his right leg. That is the reason he played such a short time in the Peacock game.

Both Hondo right tackles have slight colds from the Peacock game. It seems that the Peacock man dashing through our right tackle so many times the last half created quite a breeze.

We seem to have created quite a loyal boys rooting section from the grades. More power to them. We cannot hear any high school boys yelling.

H. E. GIRLS ORGANIZE.

The H. E. Girls met in the auditorium Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of electing officers. Miss Stubbs presided until a president was elected. Gracie Reily, a popular senior, was elected president, and she then took charge of the meeting. The other officers elected were: vice president, Jean McCall; secretary-treasurer, Evelyn Barnes; reporter, Ginger Fusselman. It was decided that maybe better programs could be presented if the committee were elected rather than appointed. Those elected for membership on the program committee were: Milton Marie Merritt, Anna Laura Welhausen, and Jackie Bradley.

After a great deal of discussion the members decided that the regular meeting day will be Wednesday. There will be two meetings each month.

—Owlets—

TENNIS MEETING HELD.

Thursday afternoon a meeting of those who intend to go out for tennis was held in the Science room. There was a large number present but the majority of them are out for Junior tennis. Those present decided to practice about five o'clock every evening. On most of the evenings Mr. Saddle will be there to coach those who are present. All who attended the meeting were High School students but those in the grades can enter the Junior division. With so much material Hondo should be able to take everything in tennis this year. If you want to play, however, you must practice as much as possible and practice now. Don't wait until the spring.

Come on, boys and girls, pep it up.

—Owlets—
SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY.

On Sept. 30 Mrs. R. W. Speece surprised Bernice with a birthday party at her home, which was beautifully decorated with pale pink roses and deep pink queen's crown. The color scheme was carried out with pink mints and pink tapers and pink tallies.

The guests arrived shortly before Roseina, Gladys, Frankie, and Billy brought Bernice home to dress for the show. While she was upstairs dressing, the guests gathered around the piano in a dark room. As Bernice started into the room the lights were switched on and the guests sang "Happy Birthday". Bernice was really surprised!

After the song the party continued with several games of bridge. After the bridge every guest was given a slip of paper with "Happy Birthday" on it, and a pencil. Gladys Fusselman won the prize for getting the most words from "Happy Birthday" in five minutes.

Refreshments of meat sandwiches, toasted cheese on heart-shaped toast, sweet pickles, mints, cake and hot chocolate were served to the following guests: Gladys and Billy Fusselman, Roseina Taylor, Bernice Chaney, Gen Brucks, Frankie Mae Fusselman, Lela Grace and Jo Reily, Evelyn Barnes, Mary Ruth Wilson, Virginia Ulbrich, and the honoree, Bernice Speece.

Bernice received many beautiful gifts.

About 10:00 the wieners were roasted. Music was furnished by two radios from two cars.

Schmidt, Mildred Wolff, Wesley Hueser, Otis Neuman, Charlie Gilham, Howard Hueser and Ivan Nester. The sponsors were Mrs. Earnest and Mrs. Moore.

DIED.

Eric Wilson Mills died in San Antonio early Tuesday morning after a short illness. Eric was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mills and was 7 months and 28 days old. Survivors are the parents, a sister, Rose Ann and two brothers, Herbert Gordon and Louis Mangold Mills.

The little form was laid to rest Wednesday morning, at 9 o'clock, in San Fernando No. 2.

We offer our sincerest condolences to the bereaved in their great loss. May they be consoled by the fact that their dear little son is now in that home above not prepared by hands.

A large number from here attended the funeral of little Eric Mills in San Antonio Wednesday morning.

John Naegelin and Joe Schmitt were San Antonio visitors Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Christilles of LaCoste were Castroville visitors Thursday.

A large force of men are at work at the Alois Haby crossing below the diversion dam, putting the low water bridge back into position which the recent rise in the river had swept away. The bridge broke its moorings and was found about 400 yards down stream. We understand a concrete bridge will span the river at that point in the near future.

Al Haby, accompanied by his son, Lorenze Haby, was in San Antonio Tuesday with a truck load of fat cattle, and evidently, we conjecture, found the market depressed.

The friends of Ben Kempf are glad to hear that he is improving from his recent serious illness.

J. G. FitzSimon was here from Dunlay Sunday.

Dr. F. C. Whitehead, who practiced medicine here for eight years but who left here thirteen years ago, has moved back into our midst and has established an office at the Castroville Drug Store. Castroville now has three M. D's.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hutzler and son, Gene, who moved to Bandera some time ago, visited Mrs. Hutzler's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Brymer, Saturday and Sunday. Otto reports plenty of rain up his way.

Otto Haegelin was in San Antonio Monday with a truck load of cattle. Several automobile wrecks occurred Saturday night and our doctors were kept busy stitching up the lacerations received in such wrecks. Beware, drive at a sane speed.

HABY-KUNTSCHER.

One of the most beautiful wedding ceremonies of the season occurred at St. Matthew's Church at Jourdan-ton, Texas, October 1, 1935, when Miss Mary Kuntischer, third eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kuntischer of Jourdan, became the happy bride of Mr. Laurence Haby of Castroville, Texas, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Haby of Castroville. Rev. H. Benz performed the ceremony.

The bride was led to the altar by her father. Her dress was of white satin crepe and she wore a white veil and wreath of orange blossoms. The bride's bouquet was of queen's crown and fern. The groom wore a navy blue serge suit.

The bridesmaids were Miss Corine Graff and Miss Elizabeth Kuntischer. Miss Graff was dressed in soft rose crepe and Miss Kuntischer in baby blue crepe. The groomsmen were Henry Kuntischer and Clarence Haby.

After the ceremony the bridal party and friends returned to the bride's home where an all-day celebration was held. Following the supper a big dance was held at the S. P. J. S. T. hall at Dobrowolski, Texas. When the dance was ended each and every one wished Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Haby a long and happy married life.

BOOSTER CLUB PREPARING FOR CELEBRATION.

A very successful meeting of the Medina County Booster Club was held last Friday night at which additional plans were made for the free barbecue at the fair grounds on November 11th. Everything points to a celebration which will surpass anything ever attempted in Medina County.

Besides the free barbecue, a full day's entertainment is being planned. This includes calf and goat roping, a ring tournament and several contests. The ring tournament is a revival of a contest which was always a great attraction at any celebration 15 or 20 years ago. If you don't know what it is ask any one of the men who are on the tournament committee, J. B. Dawson, V. P. King and Otis Laughinghouse.

Meetings to discuss and perfect plans for this Armistice Day observance are held every Friday night at the Hondo Lumber Co. Everyone is invited, regardless of whether they are members of the Fair Assn. or of the Booster Club. More people in Hondo and the surrounding communities should take an interest in this event. Remember, every Friday night at the Hondo Lumber Co. Be there!

GEORGE H. BENDELE DEAD.

Following an illness of only a few days, death came rather suddenly to Mr. George H. Bendele about 8:15 P. M., Saturday, October 5, 1935. His remains were buried in Oakwood cemetery Monday afternoon, October 7th, the funeral being conducted from the Horger funeral parlor at 3 o'clock, the service being conducted under the auspices of the local lodge of Masons, Rev. Shan M. Hull of the Methodist church officiating as Master of the Lodge. Another touching tribute was the placing over his grave, following the burial services, of a token of esteem by his brethren of the Quili Gun Club of which organization he had long been a member.

One of the largest gatherings ever assembled at a funeral in Hondo and a profusion of beautiful flowers attested the wide esteem in which he was held by those who knew him.

George H. Bendele, oldest son of Jacob and Sybilla Hass Bendele, both of whom are deceased, was born in Medina County, near Castroville, on March 10, 1859. He lived back in the days of wild Indians and had several encounters with them. He was a life-long resident of Medina County, having spent the last 40 years of his life in Hondo. Two brothers, Albert and Fritz Bendele, preceded him in death.

His first marriage was to Miss Amelia Graff, on May 19, 1881; to this union three children were born, one of whom, Charles, died some 15 years ago. His first wife died Feb. 8, 1895. His second marriage was to Mrs. Carolina Leinweber Martin, on January 22, 1896; to this union three children were born, two sons and a daughter, one son, Robert, having died four years ago.

He spent his life in the farming and ranch business, and was always a man who was in earnest about his business and worked hard at his job; and was considered a successful man in his business.

When he was about 38 years of age he made application to the Masonic Lodge of Hondo to receive the degrees of the order. He was elected to take the Entered Apprentice degree, was passed to the degree of a Fellow Craft, and was later raised to the sublime degree of a Master Mason. For the last 38 years of his life he was faithful and loyal to his Masonic obligations, and held a Life Membership Certificate, which he had framed and hung on the wall in his home.

It was his long expressed wish that the Masonic Fraternity say the last words over his remains. This writer knows the deceased had a deep and abiding love for the tenets of his fraternity, and was generous and fraternal in his relationship to his brethren.

His illness was of short duration, having only been sick for about a week before his death. He lived to see the good ripe age of 76 years, 6 months and 25 days.

Those who survive him are his wife, Mrs. Carolina Leinweber Bendele of Hondo; four children, Mrs. Ben Oeffinger of Hondo, George H. Bendele, Jr., and Mrs. Adolph Pichot of the Seco, and Mrs. Pauline Goff of Goose Creek; 22 grandchildren and one great grandchild; three sisters and three brothers, Mrs. Mary Blatz of El Paso, Mrs. Hortense Bihartz of Pearsall, and Mrs. Sybilla Haass of Hondo, Jacob, Henry and Arpin Bendele from near Biry.

He shall not only be missed by those of his loved ones and near kin, but by all of his friends and acquaintances.

Among the large concourse of sorrowing relatives, neighbors and friends, the following from a distance were noted: Mrs. Pauline Goff and George Pichot of Goose Creek, Mr. and Mrs. John Grossenbacher, Mrs. Ella Oeffinger and Miss Lizzie Oeffinger, Mrs. C. J. Oeffinger, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Edgar, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Davis, Mrs. Louis Hoog and Mrs. Rudolph Zinsmeister, all of San Antonio, Mrs. Erby Hudson and daughter of Laredo, Mrs. Hortense Bihartz, Aug. and Hy. Bihartz, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dawson and Mrs. Etta Downs, all of Pearsall, Messrs. Alb. and Geo. Blatz, and J. J. Wipff, Mr. and Mrs. B. Bomba, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Schott, all of Devine, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bendele, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bendele, Mr. and Mrs. Hy. V. Haass, Jr., of Castroville, Mrs. Joe Spettel, Mr. and Mrs. Rud. Haby, Mr. and Mrs. Alb. Bendele of Rio Medina, Mrs. Henrietta Pruitt and Mrs. Lopez of San Antonio, and Emil Martin of Knippa.

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.

The Master Jesus Christ said: "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness; and all things shall be added unto you." This is found in Matthew 6, 33. Apparently, by this Truth does not mean much to many Christians. "It is all right in theory, but it does not work out in practice" was the comment of a business man who defended his lack of interest in church work with the claim that his business affairs took all of his time. This is the sentiment of many: their work, their own affairs take up all their time.

They do, because the person permits them to take up all his time, and that is positively wrong. It is not theory, but fact that some of the busiest men and women find time for church work; not only that, but church work is the FIRST thing in their minds and hearts. They put first things first.

Stonewall Jackson, a great fighter and a Christian, even while out on the field of battle, was mindful of his duties and responsibilities to his church at home. The following story is told of him:

"A decisive battle had been fought. The telegraph lines were down, and news was slow in reaching some who were most interested. At length a letter arrived from the general to his home town. His handwriting was recognize, and the general's pastor broke the seal and read to the impatient listeners: 'I remember that this is the day for the collection for foreign missions. Please find enclosed my check.' Then came the signature of the hero of the battle and that was all."

Thanks for mercies past received, Pardon of our sins renew, Teach us always, Lord, to live With eternity in view.

On Sunday, October 13, at 7:30 P. M. the examination of the class of 15 confirmants will take place at the church.

On Sunday morning, Oct. 20, at 10:00 A. M. the confirmation service will be conducted. Service at Sprotville 2:30 P. M. German service Oct. 13 at 10:00 A. M.

MRS. BOON ENTERTAINS.

A large number of friends were recipients of the charming hospitality of Mrs. Volney Boon Friday afternoon when she entertained with six tables of bridge at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. M. Finger. The tables were arranged on the sun porch, which was decorated with orange cosmos and fern and other fallowen motifs. The bridge appointments further featured the chosen theme.

Following a number of bridge games, prizes were awarded Mrs. F. Schweers for high score and Mrs. W. H. Case for low. An innovation was the traveling prize, for slams. This award also went to Mrs. F. H. Schweers.

The hostess, assisted by Misses Frances Finger, Lucille Boon and Anna Laura Welhausen, served a salad course, cake and iced tea.

The guests were Mesdames Roy Hunter, N. C. Johnson, Earl Starnes, O. B. Taylor, F. H. Schweers, R. J. Noonan, H. J. Meyer, O. H. Miller, A. H. Schweers, L. J. Brucks, R. C. Rath, Ed. Case, and Earl Boon, and Misses Mary Ruth and Thelma Wilson, Thelma Lynch, Elta Leinweber and Perry Chamberlain.

QUIHI NOTES.

And while he lingered . . . the Lord being merciful unto him . . . they brought him forth, and set him without the city. Gen. 19:16.

The fatal day was breaking. The guardian angels were hastening Lot and his little family. He was fully advised of what that day would bring. God never destroys without warning. Still, Lot lingered. Why? Did he doubt the Lord's intentions, the message of the angels, in the last minute? Did he plan heroics, to go down with the doomed city, like so many a captain going down with his sinking vessel, like so many a general dying at the head of his defeated army? Did he seek a martyr's lot, dying for a good and noble cause? None of all that. He was not built for that type. Maybe sluggish with old age, or, in a fit of melancholia, he lacked the energy of self-preservation? No, he just lingered, wavered; something held him, something told him to go. He simply was not ready for the Lord's business. Wonder whether he was not fettered by entanglements by associations hostile to true citizenship and true religion, benumbing his good conscience toward God, getting him in confidential relations with bad men, substituting man-made ideals for divine standards and feeding him with flimsy phraseology in place of God's stern directives, thus stealthily throwing him out of gear with God's objectives and now making him totter with awe when God asserted Himself in judgment? How hard it is to break such connections! But the Lord was merciful, teaching him an emphatic lesson on, Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers.

Fourteen members and several guests were present at the last meeting of the Ladies' Aid. Trust the others had very good reasons for absence at this important meeting. Among various other deliberations, the Aid pledged its hearty cooperation for the intended program on Thanksgiving Day. The committee appointed for the purpose consists of the Mesdames Otto Lindeburg, Jacob Oeffinger, Geo. Balzen, Ernest Hartman and Frank Boehle. We were glad of the fine spirit evinced in this connection.

Miss Lorine Bohlen ventured into Arizona on a visit, leaving a gap in our teaching staff for the Sunday school, but we are able to supply with a substitute. And for the time being, Miss Pauline Saathoff has planned an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Saathoff, at the suburb of Quili, San Antonio. May both enjoy the change without forgetting the roosting place of Home, Sweet Home.

Another reminder of the Mission Festival on October 20th. May the Lord present us favorable weather and large audiences with the proper enthusiasm for His work in missions. It's a great privilege to be a collaborator with God in His greatest work, the winning of immortal souls.

Announcements for October 13th: English service at 10:30; Sunday school and Bible classes at 9:30; German service at New Fountain, 2 P. M. Luther League program at 7:15. Come and be welcome.

MANAGING EDITOR.

Hon. Joe W. Caldwell has our thanks for copies of the House Journal and other favors. Mr. Caldwell, both by reason of his energy and his position on important committees, is a very busy man, especially in view of the important legislation now under consideration in the legislature. But in it all he finds time to guard the interest of his district as well as look after the larger interests of the state.

METHODIST CHURCH.

Shan M. Hull, Pastor.

Our 4th Quarterly Conference was held last Sunday evening, at the close of the evening preaching service, and has become a matter of history. There will only be three more Sundays until this conference year shall also be a thing of history, therefore, since our church records do become a matter of history for the coming generations to look back upon, let's all strive to make the records such that we would be glad for our children, and their children to read.

The following officers were elected at the 4th Quarterly Conference: Board of Stewards, O. A. Fly, Henry Merriman, J. R. Chancey, H. F. King, J. G. Newton, A. H. Schweers, S. O. Woods, R. L. Mumme, C. J. Monkhouse, Paul Ephraim, and Leslie Holloway; Recording Steward, S. O. Woods; District Steward, O. A. Fly; Associate District Steward, J. G. Newton; Chairman Church Missionary Committee, Mrs. J. G. Newton; Golden Cross Director, Mrs. Barnitz Carle; General Superintendent of Church School, J. A. Horger; Assistant Superintendent, S. O. Woods; Board of Christian Education, Mrs. J. A. Horger, Mrs. O. A. Fly, Mrs. J. G. Newton, and Mrs. S. M. Hull; Superintendent of Divisions, Children's Division, Miss Willie D. Fly, Young People's Division, Miss Irene Barkuloo; Adult Division to be elected.

Remember friends, that there remains such a short time before the pastor leaves for the meetings of the Annual Conference, the time is so near at hand, but there remains quite a distance to go before we reach our financial goal. Our goal will be possible this year if each and every member of the church will do his and her part in helping to reach our goal; therefore, we are desirous of the co-operation of the membership with the Board of Stewards in helping them to meet all of the obligations of the church. Your most hearty co-operation will be appreciated by all concerned.

D'HANIS PIRATES CROWNED HIGHWAY 90 CHAMPIONS.

The D'Hanis Pirates were crowned champions of the Highway 90 League for the 1935 season as a result of their two straight victories over the Sabinal Huslers in the play-off series for the title. The Pirates capped the first game of the series on their home field by a score of 3 to 1. The second game was called in the sixth inning on account of rain with the score tied 1 and 1. The game was played over on the following Sunday at Sabinal, and after a hard fought 12-inning battle the Pirates won 5 to 1. This is the third year the Pirates have won the Highway 90 Championship.

Following is the box score of the deciding game played at Sabinal:

In Sunday's issue of the Houston Chronicle Floyd Mechler and Jackie Schuehle of Hondo were given special mention as outstanding backfield players in the football game last Saturday between the Rice freshman squad and Lamar. In a recent dispatch from Schreiner Institute, two more Hondo boys were given special notices. Ted Dawson is quoted as giving a splendid performance in the line Friday in the Mountaineer win over the San Marcos Bob Cats. Carroll Jones of Hondo, rangy halfback, was the only casualty of the day. Reports at present are that he may be out of the line-up from three days to a week with a leg injury.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Saathoff and Mrs. Guenther Koch spent last Saturday in San Antonio. Mrs. Saathoff and daughter visited relatives while Mr. Saathoff attended the Old Trail Drivers' Association meeting. Mr. Saathoff reports a big time, the entertainment features being a barbecue in the afternoon and a dance at the Gunter Hotel at night. While there he said he met Jacob Fohn of below Hondo and a large number of old friends among the members. Mr. Saathoff in his younger days was initiated into the group now known as the Old Trail Drivers. His first trip up the U. P. trail was in 1883, when he and a number of other men drove 600 head of horses from below Hondo to Dodd City, Kansas. In the group were George Gerdes, Mr. Saathoff's brother, the late Emil Saathoff, and the late Oscar de Montel, and a number of others who since passed on. Ed Kauffman of Castroville, who died several months ago, was boss of the outfit on that drive. Mr. Saathoff drove up the trail again in 1884, and has many interesting stories to relate about his experiences.

ST. JOHN'S PAROCHIAL SCHOOL NOTES.

A FOREWORD. "Happy days are here again", St. John's is in full swing now. The number of pupils this semester show an increase. The keen interest and attention demonstrated by pupils make the task of teaching a pleasant one for the Sisters, who received a "heartily welcome" from the parents on their arrival here.

TO THE PARENTS: Before we proceed further with the news of St. John's, we wish to extend our sincere thanks to the parents for their past cooperation with us. We ask you to continue your cooperation and we assure you that we will give your children not merely the material education which they receive here and out of here but also an education—a moral one that will remain with them forever. We thank you parents, and we urge you to continue your cooperation.

ST. JOHN'S CLUB. A week or two after classes were resumed at St. John's a club was organized by the intermediates. The voting for the chief officers was done secretly and by ballot.

The results of the balloting were as follows: Mary Ann Noonan was elected to the office of presidency by a majority of votes.

Mary Louise Haegelin was elected to the office of secretary. There was almost a tie between Mary Louise and Charles Vincent Richter for the latter office. Charles Vincent Richter, however, was elected to the office of treasurer—a very important office as you all know.

Pupils of St. John's show by the above results that they are capable of voting intelligently, although they have not attained the qualifications common to all citizen voters.

The Club is an active one and is now known as St. John's Stars. The members have given a luncheon in the school auditorium which was indeed a big success. They have also given a little card party—it too was a grand success. The club is now contemplating another party and we are not timid in saying that this too will be successful. By means of this Club's activities we will be able to obtain some material and equipment lacking in St. John's.

ST. JOHN'S HONOR ROLL.

The following pupils received honors in the First Test: Fred Schuehle, Bobby Lou Rath, Willie Mae Eckhart, Freddie Jerome de Grodt, Dorothy Ney, Henry Martin Finger, Maurice Joseph Zerr, Rose Marie Finger.

RANCHER OF HONDO ADJUDGED BANKRUPT.

Adjudging Max John Wenmohs, Hondo ranchman and assistant AAA cotton adjuster, a bankrupt was the first official act of Federal Judge R. J. McMillan upon his return Tuesday from a visit of several weeks in New York, where he assisted in clearing a heavy criminal docket.

Wenmohs listed his debts at $5828, and his assets at $250.—San Antonio Light.

The wedding was solemnized in the Catholic Church at Jourdan. After the ceremony a host of relatives and friends went to the home of the bride's parents where an all-day celebration was held, and at night a big dance was tendered the young couple. All reported an enjoyable trip and a good time.

The way to permanent prosperity is the difficult path of economy and efficiency in Government, and the balancing of budgets of States and the Nation. The people must be encouraged to go the way of independence, industry, economy and self-reliance. Business is ready to resume its forward march if the Congress would give assurance of sound legislation.—Senator Byrd of Virginia.

—oOo—

This paper could never respect the late Senator Long's methods much, for they were too often the methods of a demagogue. Like many another able man, he spoiled what might have been a brilliant career and brought himself and the miserable wretch who murdered him both to untimely ends by his failure to recognize and respect the rights of others, failing to realize that might without right is dangerous.

—oOo—

This paper stands for a government of Democratic simplicity. It stands for a government economically administered. It stands for a government that is the servant and not the master of the people. It stands for all who stand for these things. It parts company with any who depart from them. If you stand for a free, untrammelled press you stand with us. As you stand by us with your material support the firmer we can stand. If you are a reader of this paper this should need no interpretation. Help us spread our circulation.

—oOo—

The man, be he president, secretary of agriculture or editor of a great agricultural journal, may think that plowing under thousands of acres of cotton with the tons of oil that might have been squeezed out of the seed, as was done in 1933, to say nothing about the thousands of pigs and cows left to feed the buzzards in 1934, was not "destroying food", but his protestations are not convincing, either to the consumer who is now paying higher prices for meat and grease, or to the farmer who is short on these products when the sale price is up. It is never wise to wantonly waste the bounties of nature.

—oOo—

The Texas Legislature, in voting on the pending Small liquor bill, will have to choose between liquor drinking openly before a licensed and legally prescribed bar and drinking out of a bottle any and every where. In choosing between two evils let us hope they choose the lesser of the two. In proscribing the serving of liquor to the customer by the drink, the buyer will be forced to make a larger purchase. Being denied the right to have it served to him, he will carry it away with him to consume it under less restraint and under every imaginable circumstance. In other words, in the effort to outlaw the "open saloon" by proscribing the bar room, they make a distributing agency out of the automobile, the ice box and the hip pocket of every man who drinks and "open a saloon" wherever men can pull a cork. Such is the maze of folly we lead ourselves into when we refuse to face facts.

—oOo—

The Texas Legislature submitted a Constitutional Amendment to the voters of the state providing authority for that body to establish an Old Age Pension. Having opposed the plan, FARMING does not presume to be a mouthpiece for those who voted for it. It stands to reason, however, that those who voted for it voted with the understanding that they were voting for an OLD AGE PENSION. It now develops that the same legislature that submitted the proposal is planning to give the voters not an Old Age Pension but an INDIGENT OLD AGE'S DOLE. It would be more in keeping with real statesmanship to nullify this ill-advised piece of class legislation by refusing to pass an enabling act than to gold-brick the people by perverting it into a pauper's dole. Don't play a shell-game with the would-be pension beneficiaries or the taxpayers either.

THE EDITOR'S TURN-ROW

FORCING US INTO INFLATION.

In a recent article, Paul Mallon, the well known Washington correspondent, wrote: "The truth is the treasury does not know what its receipts and expenditures will be next month. Its haziness about the future expands at the contemplation of each sheet on the calendar. It cannot have even a faintly worthwhile opinion beyond next year."

This is in line with the theory that many thinking Americans have been holding for some time—that federal finance is in a hopelessly chaotic condition. Forecasts as to the future revenue have no sound basis—they usually represent optimism, rather than realism. The government continues to spend us farther into debt—and apparently hasn't the slightest idea of where the money is to come from to meet obligations.

One inevitable result of such a policy is constantly mounting taxes—along with new taxes. Another, and perhaps more menacing possibility, is inflation. All the tax laws in the world cannot produce revenue when personal pocketbooks and industrial bank balances run dry. When that happens, inflation—which can be defined as cheapening and degrading the currency—becomes the "easy" way out.

The PERILS of INFLATION need no description—the tragic EXAMPLES of GERMANY and other countries which experienced INFLATIONARY periods are well known. If we are to avoid such social and economic tragedies at home, government finance must undergo a thorough overhauling, both in principle and practice.—Industrial News Review.

If it be true that "a half truth is the worst of lies", then the worst kind of dishonesty is deception camouflaged behind a veil of truth!

The last paragraph of the foregoing quotation is just such a deception.

It is dishonest!

And it is being resorted to far too often by writers who should be far too honest to thus mislead the people.

The "perils of inflation" LIE NOT IN AN INCREASE OF CIRCULATING MEDIUM, as the argument cleverly implies, BUT IN EXHAUSTION OF CREDIT, as it clumsily tries to hide.

"The tragic examples of Germany and other countries" were tragic in that "INFLATION," so called, the issuance of CREDIT currency, was not attempted until the countries'

credit was exhausted and there was nothing left to sustain the currency.

The "tragedy", instead of condemning the issue of credit currency as ruinous, condemns the policy of exhausting a country's credit—if avoidable—before resorting to this use of credit in order to preserve it; proper use of any thing is its best preservation.

The tragedy will serve a useful purpose if it warns the American people to restore the function of issuing money to the government before the issuing of bonds has wrecked the credit of the country.

Faith in the ability to pay makes the bonds valid; the same faith will circulate a credit currency.

Without that faith—that credit—both will fail.

The very thing such writers attempt to conjure into a menace under the mask of "inflation", becomes the light of our economic salvation under its rightful guise of a restoration to the people of the constitutional right to have their government issue its own currency and use it for the good of the whole people instead of leaving the power to issue money in the hands of a favored few to whom it has been farmed out while the people are sold into economic slavery through the issuance of bonds.

When will our writers and statesmen meet the issue of honest facts and get headed right, not only for recovery but for economic freedom?

—oOo—

There is an almost universal market slump in the prices of all farm products at the harvest season. This is a natural consequence of so much being rushed upon the market and the speculators taking advantage of the farmers' rush to sell. The speculator is not to be blamed for the very human instinct to take advantage of circumstances in his favor. Then, too, it is the speculator who takes the risk involved in carrying the product until the demands of consumption absorb it, and he buys as cheaply as possible in order to insure against possible loss. Furthermore, the farmer who has to sell would be in a hapless situation if there were no speculators to assume the risk. When agriculture again becomes what it once was—a cash business—and each farm is supplied with ample storage facilities for holding the product on the farm until consumption and not speculation absorbs it, then—and not till then—can the farmer stand from under the handicap of the harvest-time price slump.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

—That the power to think is Nature's greatest gift to man?

—That without the power of thought man would be without the power to advance?

—That to the thoughts of the wise is due most of man's material good?

—That by the thoughts of the good has come most of our morality?

—That we raise or lower ourselves by the quality of our thoughts?

—That man's actions never rise above the nobility of his thoughts?

—That "as a man thinketh in his heart so is he"?

Disrespect for the rights of the minority is a greater menace to our liberties than all the schemes ever dreamed by the Reds!

AN AUTUMN THOUGHT.

Autumn
Leaves have their time
To fall, but e'er they pass
Turn to gold—a wealth of beauty
Untold.

So should
One's own life be,
Like leaves arrayed for death,
Closed bright with heaven's reflected
Glory!

—FLETCHER DAVIS.

Passing up the question as to whether the altruistic motives behind the government's Rural Resettlement plan outweigh the evils of the paternalistic features of its attempted application, one vital weakness of the scheme seems to be entirely ignored by those set to the task of putting it in operation. That is the problem of taxation. The ad valorem tax alone on realty property in many localities is so excessive as to deter many young farmers from the venture of home ownership. In addition to this, indirect taxes are so universally applied, and have raised interest rates and living costs so high, that many farmers who inherited free of cost, not "submarginal" lands but fine farms, are finding it impossible to retain their farms much less live on them and at the same time earn from them the purchase price which they must pay to acquire them. With all due respect to the "brain trust" which formulated the plan, a better Rural Resettlement plan would be to encourage the individual to himself seek to acquire the home of his choice by exempting small homesteads from all taxation.

Governor James V. Allred has announced that parole boards have been approved in the first eight counties in Texas through the cooperation of district governors and presidents of local service clubs. These county parole boards are to be charged with the community service responsibility of rehabilitating paroled or pardoned criminals and making periodical reports to the Governor. In the past, convicts out of the penitentiary on parole or pardon have been "on their own" and the inclination to return to a life of crime has been ever present. Governor Allred believes that with responsible citizens in each community ready to aid these unfortunate men that the constructive and worthwhile purpose of making honest, law-abiding citizens of them can be accomplished. It is the Governor's hope that service clubs throughout the State of Texas will respond immediately to the call for board nominations. Governor Allred originated the idea of county parole boards as a means to aid the pardoned or paroled prisoner get a foothold on life again. The idea is completely new and has not been tried out before in any state. Parole boards are already appointed in several counties.

—oOo—

Ernest Caldecott, writing on the "Need for Leadership", in the Christian Register, thus voices a thought that is agitating the minds of all who are mindful of the future welfare of our country and of our posterity. Says Mr. Caldecott: "While many of us declare that business should not be so interfered with by government, IN THE NEXT ELECTION WE SHALL EITHER VOTE FOR MORE SUCH INTERFERENCE OR GIVE OURSELVES OVER TO A GROUP WHO WILL FOSTER SPECIAL PRIVILEGE AND LEGALIZE MONOPOLY, which latter may yet breed the revolution we would avert. A third party is foredoomed to failure, and socialism, as such, does not capture the imagination of our citizenry. Thus we are in a cul de sac." Which being interpreted means that the two dominant parties are to keep up a sham battle over non-essentials while organized greed further enslaves the masses. Unless the Democratic party can be recaptured by real Democrats or the Republican party can change its spots and become the champion of the people instead of special privilege before the next election, four more years of uncertainty and economic insecurity is the inevitable fate of the country. At present, both parties are dodging the issue of monopoly, the striking off of whose hydra-heads is to be the country's only salvation—and the foremost of these are the banker's monopoly of currency control and the protective-tariff-beneficiaries' control of trade.

I LIKE TO ROAM ABOUT THE FIELDS.

I like to roam about the fields
Without a gun or rod,
To know and love within my heart
The miracles of God,
The ripple of the mountain brook,
The splash of playful trout,
The bell-like calling of the thrush
So clearly ringing out.

I like to roam about the fields,
To pause beneath the tree,
To have the timid squirrel come
And make a friend of me,
To watch the rabbit's ears salute
Each little, foreign sound,
To see the cautious, antlered stag
Leap lightly o'er the ground.

I like to roam about the fields,
To let my soul be filled
With all the scented sweetnesses
Which Nature has instilled,
To glimpse the jewelled spider web,
Inspect the busy bees;
Please God that I may always want
To love such things as these!
—ADDISON HOWARD HALLOCK.

THE RUSHING WIND.

The wind is affecting me strangely
today,
I feel that I must kneel and pray . . .
Something is tapping the door of my
soul
Like fierce rushing winds that hunt
for a goal.
Though sorrows kill gladness in this
world of woe,
I know what power affects me so.
I reach out for bliss with two empty
hands,
And although they ache, not one understands.
I know that I can love, but leave me
alone,
Still as a statue, a carving in stone.
Though afraid to speak I could
scream at life,
And hurl in its face deceitful
strife . . .
And yet as the wind blows on and on
I vision another tomorrow's dawn
Through fragrant gardens over
mountains and streams
In a constant change of scenic
dreams.
—ELIZABETH GILES WINN.

A PRAYER FOR GRASS.

Oh, give me grass, the green, green
grass,
Or the dead grass grown sere and
brown;
But give me grass where I may lie
Far from the madding crowds of
town.
Oh, let me rest where birds are
heard,
In glades where none may come or
pass;
Yes, let me rest in quietness,
And soothe my soul with grass—
grass—grass.
—EDNA VAUGHAN BLACK.

VENICE.

The lights
Fell like tresses
Of gleaming yellow hair
Spread over the surface of blue
Water.
—JEANETTE NOURLAND in
L'ALOUETTE, Oct. 1933.

TO WHOM I LEND MY BOOKS.

There is a most selective list
Of they whom books I lend;
And he who borrows them is
known,
Sincerely for a friend.
So when I lend a book to you,
Preserve—return it whole.
When pages in my books are
torn;
It also tears my soul.

THE MUSES' GARDEN

THE AWAKENING OF THE WATER FOWLS.

Sweet down-wind gently stirs the
purple haze,
Arrows of light fall on a placid lake
Changing that seeming void of black
to blue,
Then watch the numerous water-fowl
awake.
Soft murmurings are heard on every
side,
Then louder cheep of impudent mud-
hens—
Low laughter of those idiotic loons
As they, with long-beaked ibis edge
the fens.
Gray hel-divers awake with sudden
cries—
Plovers start wading in the shallows
near—
A curved bill curlew rises from its
haunt—
Then whirring, noisy, honking geese
appear,
Followed by snowy egrets, gleaming
white,
And lovely herons, down of softest
blue.
The axe-billed pelicans stand dignified.
As though awaiting a forgotten cue.
A wondrous spectacle each opening
day,
Watching this wild life wake to greet
the sun,
This sanctuary, paradise where birds
Know not a fear of man, or dog, or
gun.
—ELLIE WILCOX BURT.

AUTUMN.

In the autumn's golden glow
When the leaves are turning red,
Do you think of winter's snow
Or of autumn days instead?
Songs of birds were ne'er so sweet
As they linger for awhile,
But where they go there's no sleet
And the sun e'en wears a smile.
Nuts have turned a golden brown
And the apples rosy red,
Oh, how can you wear a frown
With the blue sky overhead?

Grapes have turned a purple hue
Squirrels have gleaned a winter
store,
Goldenrods now blooming true
Soon will rest till winter's o'er.

Brightest flowers are last to bloom
Seem to cheer us on the way,
Before winter's chilly gloom.
So love autumn while you may.
—DAISY BROOKING.

FULL MOON.

The soft night wind sighed
And the savage in me cried
At the sight of the full, full moon
For both knew day would come too
soon.
—DALE GUHL.

THE BEST SEASON.

Summer is so lovely
I really must confess,
That she would seem the season
Which most will earth life bless;
When every orchard's begging
That we all eat our fills,
While blossoms line the highways,
And are mirrored in all rills.

But think of lovely Autumn,
Dressed for her grand soirees
So regal in her splendor
She dazzles with her rays.
With gold and orange drapings
The grand dame will appear
In a maze of crimson glory—
The Sunset of the Year.

Yet what is more delightful
Than that season grand
Which as rest-time for all nature
Was divinely planned;
When silence rules the forests
And selfish, prodding care
Has settled down for sleeping
Beneath snow's mantles fair!

But is not Spring most blessed
Of the seasons of the years?
When sensient Nature mingles
Gay rainbows with her tears;
When with rebirth of Nature,
Aspiring human souls
Glimpse Resurrection's promise
Of ever higher goals!
—LILLIAN MATHILDA SVENSON.

NIGHT SKETCH.

Autumn night
Aloof and strangely cool;
A high white moon
Stenciled in the east;
Bridal wreath
Embroidering a tremulous silence
Along the weathered pailings
Of the fence;
A silhouette of slender palm leaves
Tapping
The blue grey silence of night;
And from the distant shadows of the
fort
Comes the long full blasts
Of a silvered bugle—
Taps.

—L. VA. DAVIDGE.

SUNSET.

On the western hills the sunset glow
Is dawdling, twilight is waiting near
the vales,
The peaks of the mountains are touched with beauty bending
low,
Orange and purple and red the gorgeous details;

Gorgeous orange and purple and red;
They are colorful rainbows magically
straightening out;
They are paralleling rainbows from
the horizon spread—
"Gloria in excelsis!" the heavens
shout.
—ANN PAGET.

POETRY.

Truer than history,
Still more hunger than
bread,
Wiser than all philosophies of men—
This Art is proof we have been gods
And shall be gods again.

WILL ROGERS.

Heart of the universe, friendly, kind,
Easing the stress of the nation's
find;
Lent to us for one little day
Then like a flash, he went away
Into the path of the setting sun
With our great need of him just begun.

Dark was the night and the water
chill
When he went out, but still, but still
Far up in the ceiling I have been told
There glimmered one new star in the
cold;
Glimmered and twinkled all through
the night
Surely no star ever shone so bright—
God in the Heavens, let him stay
To lighten our hearts for aye, for
aye.

—M. SCHAFER CONNELLY.

AUTUMN DREAMS.

When locusts drone to cricket's call
And browning sparrows sway
On scarlet sumac-shaded wall
About the close of day;

Full-seeded pods shed silken store
And squirrels in the wold
Are eying pumpkins on the floor
Mid forests red and gold;

Then golden moonlight gently
streams
Across our path at night,
Thus making Autumn's glorious
dreams
Too wonderful for sight.
—KAY McCULLOUGH.

MAN-CHILE.

Honey, don't you give dat chile
No ol' sissy doll with curls,
'Taint fitten dat a man-chile
Should play with truck like girls.

Give him bacon rine to chew,
Let him have a knife to hol',
Man-chile know what he mus' do
Do' he ain't so ol'.

Honey, don't you look so sad,
Man-chile born to guns and drums,
'Taint no use a-feelin' bad.
Jus' kin pray whatever comes.
—LOUISE NAGLE MORROW.

PRAIRIE NORTHER.

Clear rings the silver bugle of the wind
From the steel blue tumult of the sky
To the quivering grasses
Leaning close to the earth.
Rythm of the wind
And swaying grasses
Climaxed in the arc
Of a white bird's flight
To the shelter of my rooftop.
Falling, falling,
A plaintive moan
In my chimney corner,
As the norther sweeps the prairie!
—MARY OCTAVIA DAVIS.

LIFE AND DEATH.

However well we cling to life,
And dread in death to lie,
"It is not all of life to live,
Nor all of death to die."

However much we court success,
And dread defeat's chagrin,
Success comes by defeat at times,
They sometimes lose who win.
—NETTA V. WILM.

Of victory

More victory than never to
Have tried—

DEVINE NEWSLETS

From The Devine News.
PLENTY MONEY AVAILABLE
BUT NO MEN TO WORK.

This part of the world finds itself in a peculiar condition as to Relief Work and appropriations. Commissioner Roberson says we are ready to go to spending $40,000 on bridges and $200,000 on lateral roads in the county, but there are no men left on the relief rolls to do the work; only 8 or 10 at Devine and some of these are physically unfit for work. Mr. Roberson said a move is being made to allow unemployed men, who are not on relief, to do the work. We stand to lose $250,000 because we are too prosperous (?) or too independent to take a government dole.

USED BY COURTESY OF THE OWL

Owls Score Nineteen To Peacock's None.

The Hondo Owls defeated the Peacock Military Academy football team by a score of 19-0, on Barry Field Friday. Rothe, Windrow, Oefinger, and Schweers starred for the Owls, while Peacock's outstanding players were McClendon, Watkins, Zogheib and Seals.

About the middle of the initial quarter Hondo had its first chance to score when Danie, an ever alert guard, broke through and blocked a punt. They failed to score, however, when on the fourth down a pass fell incomplete into the end zone.

On the second play of the second quarter, Rothe made a very spectacular return of a punt for a gain of fifty yards. This run paved the way for Hondo's first touchdown. After several tries Windrow took the ball over. Oefinger kicked the goal. The half ended with the ball deep in Peacock's territory in Hondo's possession.

Hondo again scored in the third quarter when the Owls blocked a punt on the Peacock 5-yard line. After several plays the ball was again carried over. Oefinger's try for conversion was low.

Near the end of the third quarter the Owls scored again. This touchdown came after a series of line plays and end runs. The touchdown, however, came as the result of a completed pass, Windrow to Hartung. Oefinger's try for the extra point was again low.

The fourth quarter was scoreless, although Hondo had a chance to score when Langford intercepted a pass on Peacock's thirty-yard line. The ball was fumbled on the next play and Peacock recovered. The remainder of the game was an exchange of punts and a few passes by Peacock all of which were incomplete.

Nearly the entire game was played in Peacock territory. The visitors never threatened Hondo's goal line.

District Football Comments.

The Coyotes and the Wildcats to a finish eight, no holds barred. That is the way the district race is looking at present. The Uvalde Coyotes have slowed down only once in their march when they allowed the Carrizo squad to hold them down to a two touchdown victory week before last. Friday they took a weak Cotulla club to a 40 to 0 cleaning.

***
The Del Rio Wildcats seemingly will not be satisfied with less than 60 points. The Crystal Javelinas allowed them even 60 while they themselves were busy garnering exactly zero.

***
It will be quite a game when the two leaders meet. Speed against power. Del Rio has a fast elusive backfield featuring Brantley and Peimbert. Hondo fans will recall how Brantley ran a kickoff back to the Hondo 35-yard line late in the game in Del Rio last year. Brantley should also be the best punter in the district this year.

***
Jimmy Green's Coyotes feature power through the line and massed plays over tackle. They are probably the heaviest team in the district.

***
The Hondo Owls showed some new backs in the Friday game. B. Rothe played most of the game in place of J. H. Rothe and looked promising in the safety position. He is plenty small yet but should go places in another year. Langford and Nester played good defensive ball but their blocking on the offense was not so good.

***
That strange noise heard on the Hondo bench during the Peacock game was Coach DuBose wringing his hands and moaning for some good linebackers.

***
We have not yet made up our mind about that Boogeroo-Natalia game. The Boogeroos came back saying they made so many first downs to Natalia's two and so on and on. Then Natalia says in the Sunday Light that they had the Boogeroos on the run all during the game. We will reserve our opinion until they play the return game here on the 17th.

***
Scores this week:
Pearsall 6, Devine 0.
Carrizo Springs 12, Sabinal 0.
Asherton 6, Eagle Pass 0.
Hondo 19, Peacock 0.
Uvalde 40, Cotulla 0.
Del Rio 60, Crystal City 0.
Boogeroos 0, Natalia 0.

Changes in the local grid schedule:
The Boogeroos play the Brackenridge B squad here Thursday afternoon. The game is scheduled for 4 o'clock P. M. The Hondo High School Owls will play Somerset on Barry Field Friday afternoon, beginning at 3:30 P. M. The Owls will probably play without the services of J. H. Rothe who has developed a severe "Charley-horse" in his right leg. That is the reason he played such a short time in the Peacock game.

***
Both Hondo right tackles have slight colds from the Peacock game. It seems that the Peacock man dashing through our right tackle so many times the last half created quite a breeze.

***
We seem to have created quite a loyal boys rooting section from the grades. More power to them. We cannot hear any high school boys yelling.

H. E. GIRLS ORGANIZE.

The H. E. Girls met in the auditorium Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of electing officers. Miss Stubbs presided until a president was elected. Gracie Reilly, a popular senior, was elected president, and she then took charge of the meeting. The other officers elected were: vice president, Jean McCall; secretary-treasurer, Evelyn Barnes; reporter, Ginger Fusselman. It was decided that maybe better programs could be presented if the committee were elected rather than appointed. Those elected for membership on the program committee were: Milton Marie Merritt, Anna Laura Welhausen, and Jackie Bradley.

After a great deal of discussion the members decided that the regular meeting day will be Wednesday. There will be two meetings each month.

Thursday afternoon a meeting of those who intend to go out for tennis was held in the Science room. There was a large number present but the majority of them are out for Junior tennis. Those present decided to practice about five o'clock every evening. On most of the evenings Mr. Saddler will be there to coach those who are present. All who attended the meeting were High School students but those in the grades can enter the Junior division. With so much material Hondo should be able to take everything in tennis this year. If you want to play, however, you must practice as much as possible and practice now. Don't wait until the spring.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY.

On Sept. 30 Mrs. R. W. Speece surprised Bernice with a birthday party at her home, which was beautifully decorated with pale pink roses and deep pink queen's crown. The color scheme was carried out with pink mints and pink tapers and pink tallies.

The guests arrived shortly before Roseina, Gladys, Frankie, and Billy brought Bernice home to dress for the show. While she was upstairs dressing, the guests gathered around the piano in a dark room. As Bernice started into the room the lights were switched on and the guests sang "Happy Birthday". Bernice was really surprised!

After the song the party continued with several games of bridge. After the bridge every guest was given a slip of paper with "Happy Birthday" on it, and a pencil. Gladys Fusselman won the prize for getting the most words from "Happy Birthday" in five minutes.

Refreshments of meat sandwiches, toasted cheese on heart-shaped toast, sweet pickles, mints, cake and hot chocolate were served to the following guests: Gladys and Billy Fusselman, Roseina Taylor, Bernice Chaney, Gen Brucks, Frankie Mae Fusselman, Lela Grace and Jo Reily, Evelyn Barnes, Mary Ruth Wilson, Virginia Ulbrich, and the honoree, Bernice Speece.
